About the Northwest Yacht Brokers Association

Northwest Yacht Brokers Association (NYBA) is a non-profit organization formed in 1988 as an answer to the changing markets of boat brokers, dealers and other industry professionals. The association was founded to protect the health of the marine industry and to create guidelines and ethical standards on which to do business. NYBA's principle role is to assist its member yacht brokers, dealers and affiliate members connect with boat buyers and sellers. NYBA has been producing the Boats Afloat Show since 1978. Currently, the largest floating boat show in the Pacific Northwest, the show resides on the beautiful waters of Lake Union in the bustling South Lake Union District of Seattle.
